Chancery Causes: F. R. Edmonson vs. Mary F. Baker, widow &c.

Hounshell

CA-Debt
T-Property

To the Hon. John A. Kelly Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County Va Your orator F. R. Edmonson, humbly complaining sheweth unto your Honor, that heretofore, on the day of 1883, your orator sued out a warrant before a Justice of the peace of said County, against George W. Baker and Mary F. Baker his wife, upon a contract made jointly with them, and obtained a judgement for $14.35 and the costs - A copy of said warrant and the judgement thereon will be found filed herewith marked "A" as part hereof. From this judgement said Baker and wife appealed to the County Court of this County, where the same was again heard by said Court, and said judgement affirmed, for said sum of $14.35 and $18.82 costs making the full amount of said judgement $33.17 This judgement has been docketed so as to constitute a lien upon any real estate owned by said Baker in said County A copy of said last mentioned judgement will also be found herewith filed marked B. as part hereof.
Upon this fi fa issued and was placed in the hands of J. H. Ewing D. C. for Reese D. Flanery Sheriff of said County for collection, and was returned "no property found" a copy of this fi fa and return thereon will also be found filed herewith marked "6" as part hereof.

Your orator is advised and therefore charges that said judgement is lien upon the real estate of said Baker & wife situated in said County - And your orator charges that said Mary F. Baker is or was at the time said judgement was rendered and docketed the owner in fee, of a small tract of land situated in said County near Boonsboro whereon she then and now resides, the rents and profits of which will net in five years pay and discharge the same since the rendition of said judgement George W. Baker has departed this life, intestate and wholly insolvent so that as your orator is advised no administrator need be brought before this court, but should the necessity arise he is willing at any time to make such personal representative a party hereto. The said Mary F. Baker has since the docketing of said Judgement sold said land to one Wayman Hounsshell, who now owns & claims the same, and who your Orator is advised is necessary to be made a party hereto.

The object of this bill is to have enforced said Judgement upon said land, and have so much thereof as may be found necessary sold, as will pay the same and costs. The premises considered the prayer of your Orator is that said Mary H.
Baker and Wayman Hounsshell be made parties defendants hereto and answer this bill upon oath and upon a hearing a decree be rendered in conformity with the object of this Bill. Your Orator omitted to allege as he now does that said Judgement, nor any part thereof has never been paid to him by either of said parties or any one else. He further prays for all such other justice and general relief as he may in equity be entitled and as in duty he will ever pray &c
